Q1. Create a calculator where user have a menu to perform addition / subtraction / multiplication / division / display tables . Using loops in python.

Q2. Write a program to check if a year given by user is leap year or not.